Conduct deep research on tax compliance and planning for individuals that can be used in private wealth advisory, including retirement considerations, charitable planning, general savings strategies and provisions, and strategies for individuals and small business owners. Everything that would be needed to have as a benchmark when advising private clients and planning for the current and future tax years. Reference the information on my Drives (Google, OneDrive)

I've compiled a comprehensive private wealth tax benchmark drawing on your own practice files (the OBBBA provisions tracker, the Strategic Wealth and Tax Optimization Strategies library, the Sole Proprietor vs. S-Corp comparison, the 2025 Tax Planning Model, and your audit-defense proposal templates) combined with verified current 2026 IRS figures.

Key areas covered:

- 2026 individual income tax architecture — permanent TCJA brackets, standard deduction ($16,100/$32,200/$24,150), SALT cap phase-out, AMT, QBI permanence with the new $400 floor
- Retirement benchmarks — 2026 contribution limits across 401(k)/IRA/HSA/SIMPLE, the new mandatory Roth catch-up rule for high earners, Solo 401(k)/SEP modeling results from your own tax planning file, and inherited IRA 10-year rule mechanics
- Charitable planning — the new 0.5% AGI floor and 35%-bracket deduction cap, QCD limits ($111,000 for 2026), bunching, DAFs, and CRTs
- Estate/gift/trust — the permanent $15M/$30M exemption, portability, NRA $60,000 exposure, ILITs/SLATs/GRATs/FLPs
- Investment/savings strategies — tax-loss harvesting, NIIT thresholds, QOZs, QSBS expansion, HSA triple-tax-advantage
- Small business owner strategies — S-corp vs. sole prop, Section 179/bonus depreciation, STR material participation, depreciation classification pitfalls pulled directly from your

Upwork technical files

- Compliance/audit-readiness practices and a Q4 planning checklist you can use directly with clients

This is designed as a living reference you can update each fall when the IRS releases new inflation adjustments.
